Beatitudes for Carers

The Good Samaritan was one who cared.
Blessed are those who care: they will let people know they are loved.
Blessed are those who are gentle: they will help people to grow just as the sun helps the buds to unfold.
Blessed are those who listen: they will lighten many a burden.
Blessed are those who know how to let go: they will have the joy of seeing people find themselves.
Blessed are those who, when nothing can be said or done, do not walk away, but remain to provide a comforting and supportive presence: they will help the sufferer to bear the unbearable.
Blessed are those who recognise their own need to receive: they will be able to give all the better.
And blessed are those who give without hope of return: they will give people an experience of God.

Entrance Antiphon: In my justice I shall see your face, O Lord; when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

Responsorial Psalm: Seek the Lord, you who are poor, and your hearts will revive.

Alleluia, alleluia! The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice, says the Lord, I know them and they follow me.

Communion Antiphon: The sparrow even finds a home, the swallow finds a nest wherein to place her young, near to your altars, Lord of hosts, my King, my God! How happy they who dwell in your house! For ever they are praising you.

NOTICES

Sea Sunday

Today is Sea Sunday, when the Church remembers all those who live and work at sea. Many people have never stopped to consider how important seafarers are to our standard of living. Without them we would not have most of the items we use in our everyday lives. Many of these seafarers do not have quality of life on board that every human has the right to.

Apostleship of the Sea (AoS) is the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church in Great Britain. AoS reaches out to seafarers that visit our ports each year, offering pastoral and practical support and care. It is wholly dependent on voluntary donations to continue its work; it takes the love of Christ to seafarers in the name of the Church, recognising them as our brothers and sisters in need.

Sea Sunday is the principal fundraising and awareness-raising event of the year for AoS. Today's second collection will be taken at Masses throughout the country, this annual event is absolutely vital for AoS to continue their work. Please give generously, and remember seafarers in your prayers. Thank you.

Thank You

Diane and Pauline would like to thank Amy, Charles, Dante, Theresa, Jennifer, Mairead, Emily, Emmanuel, Mark, Jamie and Mia and all your parents for the lovely gifts that you gave us last week. It was a lovely surprise and very much appreciated.

Fr. Joseph Aduse

Fr. Joseph will be joining us from Ghana for a brief time this summer. He will be working at the Seminary for much of the summer and will be with us for about 9 days in mid-August.

Ministers of Holy Communion

Please take a letter from the back of the Church regarding the Deanery day of recollection that is due to take place on Saturday 16 October.

Papal Visit Booklet

In preparation for the Pope's visit to the UK this coming September there is a free booklet available at the back of the church. This is a very detailed booklet of information of everything you are likely to ask regarding the papal visit so please do take one. May I suggest that people take one per household.

Day of Celebration

A Diocesan Day of Celebration sharing in the Gifts of People with Special Needs will take place at Aylesford Priory on Sunday 11 July. This enables many people of all abilities to share in a day of activity and prayer including: art, music, prayer and a disco. The day will begin at 12 noon and end with a Mass of Celebration at 4pm. Please bring a picnic.

BIG FUN RUNS

There are 5km runs happening through the country for various charities in association with CAFOD. Local to us will be Mote Park, Maidstone, on Sunday 10 October. If you feel this is something you would like to take part in then you can enter online www.bigfunrun.com. Good Luck!

CCRS Course

The Christian Education Centre are pleased to announce that they are now able to offer a Catholic Certificate in Religious Studies (CCRS) course at Sevenoaks on Tuesday at St Thomas' RC Church Parish Centre, 14 Granville Road, Sevenoaks, TN13 1ER.

An information evening is planned at Sevenoaks on Tuesday 14 September, 7.30 for 8pm, for any questions and information. Please email the course secretary, Dr Frank Keen, with any queries on fkeen@cectootingbec.org.uk or call 0208 672 2422. Please let Fr. Liam know if you are interested in joining the course or attending the open evening.

Just to let you know that Fr. Liam will away on holiday 26 July – 7 August so there will be no weekday Mass during that time. The weekend will be our annual Missionary Appeal.

Please remember in your prayers those in our Parish who are currently sick, especially NIGEL BROWN.
